

Civil Engineer – Land Development

Adams has an immediate opening for a Professional Civil Engineer in our Dallas, Texas office (Coppell area). Experience in public and private projects, client relations, directing staff, proposal writing and coordination with City staff is a must. Ideal Civil Engineer candidate will possess strong communication skills, motivation and initiative.

Requirements: Civil Engineer

- BS or MS Degree in Civil Engineering
- Texas Licensed Professional Engineer (P.E.) or ability to obtain within 6 months
- Minimum 5 years' experience
- Ability to manage both staff and clients
- AutoCAD proficiency is a must, Civil 3-D is a plus
- Hydrology experience is a plus

Additional Skills: Civil Engineer

- Identifying project scope and budget management
- Knowledge of MS programs such as Word and Excel
- Excellent verbal and writing skills

Our Culture:

Adams is a 38-year-old company that promotes a fun and relaxed work environment with half-day Fridays. We are a small to mid-size firm under 50 employees with offices in Dallas, Tyler, and Austin. Our services include civil engineering, landscape architecture, land development consulting, entitlements and master planning/ land planning for a diverse mix of projects.

Competitive benefits package includes 401K as well as paid health and dental insurance for the employee.

