

ADAMS - Engineering and Development Consultants Civil Designer – Land Development

Adams has an immediate opening for a Civil Designer in our Dallas, Texas office (Coppell area). Experience in land development projects including retail/commercial, industrial, single family, etc. a must. Ideal Civil Designer candidate will possess strong communication skills, motivation and initiative.

Requirements: Civil Designer

- Minimum 5 years of AutoCAD experience
- Minimum 2 years of Civil 3D experience preferred
- Strong knowledge of site grading and drainage
- Strong knowledge of infrastructure design to include sewer, water and paving
- Ability to develop comprehensive construction document set

Additional Skills: Civil Designer

- Identifying project scope and budget management
- Knowledge of MS programs such as Word and Excel
- Excellent verbal and writing skills
- Ability to provide QC on own projects as well as others

Our Culture:

Adams is a 39-year-old company that promotes a fun and relaxed work environment with half-day Fridays. We are a small to mid-size firm under 50 employees with offices in Dallas, Tyler, and Austin. Our services include civil engineering, landscape architecture, land development consulting, entitlements and master planning/ land planning for a diverse mix of projects.

Competitive benefits package includes 401K as well as paid health and dental insurance for the employee.

Qualified applicants please send resumes to:

mktg@adams-engineering.com