

ADAMS - Engineering and Development Consultants

Entry Level Civil Engineer

Adams has an immediate opening for an Entry Level Professional Civil Engineer in our Dallas, Texas office (Coppell area). Duties included but are not limited to public and private projects, client relations, proposal writing and coordination with City staff. Ideal Civil Engineer candidate will possess strong communication skills, motivation and initiative.

Requirements: Civil Engineer

- BS or MS Degree in Civil Engineering
- FE/EIT Certification
- AutoCAD proficiency, Civil 3-D is a plus

Additional Skills: Civil Engineer

- Identifying project scope and budget management
- Knowledge of MS programs such as Word and Excel
- Excellent verbal and writing skills

Our Culture:

Adams is a 39-year-old company that promotes a fun and relaxed work environment with half-day Fridays. We are a small to mid-size firm under 50 employees with offices in Dallas, Tyler, and Austin. Our services include civil engineering, landscape architecture, land development consulting, entitlements and master planning/ land planning for a diverse mix of projects.

Check out examples of our work @ <http://adams-engineering.com/>

Competitive benefits package includes 401K as well as paid health and dental insurance for the employee.

Qualified applicants please send resumes to:

mktg@adams-engineering.com